Dear Ruth,

Danone Baby Nutrition is delighted to be involved with the Irish food allergy network (IFAN) as a sponsor to support IFAN's role of building the awareness of food allergy. I wish to confirm that Danone Baby Nutrition have had no role in the development of IFAN's care pathways for food allergy recognition and treatment. In addition Danone Baby Nutrition has had no involvement in the creation of IFAN's website or resources. We look forward to supporting IFAN in the future.

Yours sincerely,
